"YOU WILL BE BROTHERS: OUR VOCATION TO FRATERNITY" GRAND KNIGHT CORNER

My Brother Knights,

Last month started with Honoring a Great Brother Knight, George Conlow. To my knowledge he held every post possible in all the ranks of Multiple Organizations including the Knights of Columbus, SHARE and the Church community. George was a quiet giant. He was always there to help, guide and nurture. He will be missed.

With Fall fast approaching, most animals are beginning to hibernate, not the Knights. We are gearing up for another busy month. We celebrated the 100 year celebration of Fatima with procession and prayer.

We had one of the most successful Crab and Tri Tip Dinners in years. All who attended were impressed with the food and the Family atmosphere. We served over 120 guest and no one went away hungry.

Brother Carlos will be managing the KEEP CHRIST in Christmas campaign and will have cards and other information available at all Masses in November.

Father Johnson has started a campaign to help chip away at the $40,000 debt. The Knights will be on hand to do their part.

In the coming days we will be unifying the Brotherhood with may events both spiritual and social. If you know of any Knights from other groups that complain about how their group is not doing anything...Invite them to one of our events.

Vivat Jesus,
Frank Mazzuca

US Gov. Must Help Iraqi Christians

Excerpt from www.kofc.org

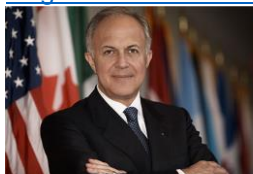

the State Department announced that it would give $32 million to the Rohingya Muslims fleeing the violence in Burma. While we applaud the assistance of any group in need of humanitarian assistance, the nearly 2 million members of the Knights of Columbus are deeply concerned that to this day, the largest displaced Christian population in Iraq has received no direct support from the United States government. The United States has an admirable history of helping genocide victims. Our government donated millions to the Christians of Armenia and the Middle East following the First World War. It prioritized Jewish refugees following the Second World War. It donated billions to those targeted for genocide in Darfur a decade ago. But for these Christian victims of ISIS, it has done almost nothing. Many Yazidis too have received no American help.

Never before has the United States treated a group targeted for genocide so poorly or ignored it more completely.

Not helping these people return home is contrary to American national security interests as foreign forces hostile to the United States roam there freely. Still, our government has taken no action to help them.

During the campaign, and after the election, President Trump has stated clearly that the previous policy of leaving these genocide victims out of U.S. government aid programs behind had to change. In addition, the Consolidated Appropriations Act in May covering Fiscal Year 2017 mandated that these communities receive American government aid. The fiscal year ends this week, and yet neither the president's promises nor the statutory obligation have been fulfilled by either USAID or the State Department.
